Basutoland.

Basutoland became a British Protectorate in Jan.
1868. In 1871 it was annexed to the Cape Colony.
In 1884 the territory was separated from the Cape Colony and restored to the direct control of the British Government. On Oct. 4, 1966 became an independent state and changed its name to Lesotho.
The works issued by this country are entered under the name used at the time of publication.
